Attorney Co-Authors Estate Tax Article

CAMBRIDGE, OH – July 8, 2001 – Attorney Frank A. McClure, J.D., has recently completed co-authoring an article entitled, “Is it Gone? Or The Non-Repeal of the Estate Tax.” The article examines what changes the recent Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) will have on the current estate tax system. McClure’s co-author for the article is Attorney Jon S. Graft, J.D., LL.M. of Virginia. McClure and Graft are in the process of submitting the article for publication to various legal journals.

McClure, who specializes in estate planning, has been practicing law in Cambridge, Ohio for 25 years. He is a member of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, the Ohio Forum of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, and the Trust Settlement Committee, of the Ohio Forum. He is also a member of the American Bar Association, the Real Estate, Probate and Trust Section of the American Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, and the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the Ohio State Bar Association. McClure regularly offers workshops to introduce existing and potential clients to the estate planning process. His formal updating system, Across the Years, the McClure Project, allows him to keep his clients current to the rapid changes in the law and the new techniques to take advantage of these changes.
