Press Release

Local Attorney's Tax Article is Published

CAMBRIDGE, OH – December 1, 2001 – The Fall 2001 edition of Estate Planning Strategies and the November 2001 edition of First Command magazine recently published an article that Attorney Frank A. McClure, J.D. co-authored. McClure's article entitled, "Is it Gone? Or the Non-Repeal of the Estate Tax" was co-authored by Attorney Jon S. Graft, J.D., LL.M. of Virginia. The article examines what changes the recent Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) will have on the current estate tax system and estate planning.

McClure's practice in Cambridge is concentrated on estate planning utilizing a proprietary Three Step Strategy Estate Planning System. This system is designed to give his clients the latest, proven technology with results that work for the clients' unique estate planning needs.

McClure has been practicing law in Cambridge for over 25 years. He is a member of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, the Ohio Forum of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, and the Trust Settlement Committee, of the Ohio Forum. He is also a member of the American Bar Association, the Real Estate, Probate and Trust Section of the American Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the Ohio State Bar Association and the Tri-County Estate Planning Counsel. McClure regularly offers workshops to introduce existing and potential clients to the estate planning process.
