Local Attorney Attends Workshop

CAMBRIDGE, OH – February 15, 2002 – Attorney Frank A. McClure recently participated in a two-day comprehensive workshop from January 21-22 in Orlando, Florida at the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys' Continuing Legal Education Forum. The title of the workshop was Asset Protection Basics, and the program provided attendees with the basics for protecting their clients' wealth through focusing on the most current and up-to-date wealth protection strategies available. Strategies discussed in the workshop included gifting, exemptions, joint ownership, Swiss insurance products, the family limited partnership, domestic trusts, the hybrid company, Stiftungen, and the foreign integrated estate planning trust and expatriation. The workshop presenters were the leading international experts on Asset Protection, Attorney Barry S. Engel and Attorney David L. Lockwood.

McClure has been practicing law in Cambridge for over 26 years. He is a member of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, the Ohio Forum of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, and the Trust Settlement Committee, of the Ohio Forum.
